

POLICY ON RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

1. SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

Related party transactions can present a potential or actual conflict of interest which may be against the best interest of the company and its shareholders. Considering the requirements for approval of related party transactions as prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013 (“Act”) read with the Rules framed there under, TMF Business Services Limited (Formerly Tata Motors Finance Limited) (“TMFBSL” or “the Company”) has formulated guidelines for identification of related parties and the proper conduct and documentation of all related party transactions.

In light of the above, TMFBSL has framed this Policy on Related Party Transactions (“Policy”). The amendment to this Policy has been adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company based on recommendations of the Audit Committee and shall be effective from April 1, 2022.

Going forward, the Audit Committee would review and amend the Policy annually, subject to the approval of the Board, unless there is a change in applicable regulations and/or in business conditions affecting the Company/its subsidiaries, which requires an earlier change to the Policy.

If the terms of this Policy differ from any existing or newly enacted regulation or standard governing the Company, such regulation or standard will take precedence over this Policy until this Policy is changed to conform to said regulation or standard.

2. OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY

The objective of this Policy is to set out (a) the materiality thresholds for related party transactions, (b) define material modification and (c) the manner of dealing with and disclosing the transactions between the Company and its related parties based on the Act as may be applicable to the Company.

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1 “Arm’s Length Transaction (‘ALP’)” means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they are unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest or where based on the business requirements and then prevailing economic conditions, the relevant stake holders have approved the terms of proposed related party transaction or where a regulator provides for any conditions impacting the market price of such transaction (for example in the case of an Advance Pricing Agreement) etc..

3.2 “Ordinary Course of Business (‘OCB’)” means a transaction which/wherein:

- is carried out in the normal course of business envisaged in accordance with the Memorandum of Association (‘MoA’) of the Company as amended from time to time, or
- is as per historical practice with a pattern of frequency, or
- is in connection with the normal business carried on by the Company, or
- the income, if any, earned from such activity/transaction is assessed as business income in the Company’s books of accounts and hence is a business activity, or
- is common commercial practice, or
- meets any other parameters/criteria as decided by the Board/Audit Committee.

3.2 A “Material modification” means any modification made in the value/exposure of any ongoing or proposed Related Party Transaction, as originally approved by the Audit Committee and/or shareholders, which has the effect of variation in the approved value of the transaction, by 25% or more or by which the transaction ceases to be in ordinary course and/or on arm’s length basis or such other parameter as may be determined by the Audit Committee from time to time.

3.3 “Relative” in relation to a related party shall have the same meaning assigned to in Section 2(77) of the Act.

3.4 “Related Party” shall have the same meaning as defined under Section 2(76) of the Act.

Reference and reliance may be placed on the clarification issued by the Ministry of the Corporate Affairs, Government of India and other Authorities from time to time on the interpretation of the term “Related Party”.

3.5 “Related Party Transactions” shall have the meaning as defined under Section 188(1) of the Act.

3.6 "Transaction" shall be construed to include single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract.

3.7 Any other term not defined herein shall have the same meaning as defined in the Companies Act, 2013 or any other applicable law or regulation.

4. MATERIALITY THRESHOLDS

4.1 The Company defines the materiality thresholds for transactions beyond which prior approval of the shareholders' will be required by way of a resolution.

4.2 TMFBSL has fixed its materiality thresholds as under:

4.2.1 If the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds Rupee 1,000 crore or ten percent (10%) of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company, whichever is lower.

4.2.2 Further, any subsequent material modifications to the terms of such transactions, as defined by the Audit Committee, shall also require shareholders' prior approval will be required by way of a resolution. Material modification shall be construed as one meeting the conditions as provided in point number 3.2A of this Policy.

5 MANNER OF DEALING WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

5.1 Identification of related parties

The Company shall identify and update the list of related parties as prescribed under Section 2(76) of the Act read with the Rules framed there under.

5.2 Identification of related party transactions

The Company shall identify related party transactions in accordance with Section 188 of the Act, Ind AS 24 'Related Party Transactions'. The Company shall determine whether the transaction is in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis and for this purpose, the Company may seek external professional opinion, if necessary.

5.3 Procedure for approval of related party transactions

5.3.1 Approval of the Audit Committee

5.3.1.1 All related party transactions and subsequent material modifications require prior approval of the Audit Committee.

5.3.1.2. Only Members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, shall approve related party transactions.

5.3.1.3. A related party transaction to which the subsidiary of a listed entity is a party but the listed entity is not a party, shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the listed entity if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds ten per cent of the annual consolidated turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the listed entity.

Further, with effect from April 1, 2023, a related party transaction to which the subsidiary of a listed entity is a party but the listed entity is not a party, shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the listed entity if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary.

5.3.1.4. The Company may obtain omnibus approval from the Audit Committee for such transactions, subject to compliances with the following conditions:

- The Audit Committee shall after seeking guidance of the Board of Directors, specify the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with this Policy which shall include the following, namely:
 - ✓ the name/s of the related party and its relationship with the company and/or its subsidiary, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum number of transactions, in aggregate, which shall be entered into in a year;
 - ✓ the maximum value per transaction which can be allowed;
 - ✓ the indicative base price/current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price, if any;

- ✓ transactions which cannot be subject to the omnibus approval by the Audit Committee; and
- ✓ Review, at such intervals as the Audit Committee may deem fit, related party transaction entered into by the Company pursuant to each omnibus approval made.
- ✓ Such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.
- The Audit Committee shall consider the following factors while specifying the criteria for making omnibus approval, namely: -
 - ✓ Repetitiveness of the transactions (in past or in future).
 - ✓ justification for the need of omnibus approval
- The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company.

5.3.1.5 However, in case of related party transactions which cannot be foreseen and where the above details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval provided the value does not exceed Rs.1 crore per transaction.

5.3.1.6. The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.

5.3.1.7. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding 1 financial year and shall require a fresh approval after expiry of such financial year.

5.3.1.8 In compliance to the approval of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee of the Company has specified following criteria for granting omnibus approval:

- The maximum value of the transactions, in aggregate, which can be allowed under omnibus route in a year will be 25% of the annual consolidated turnover of the company as per its last audited financial statements.
- The maximum value per transaction which can be approved under omnibus route will be the same as per the materiality threshold as defined in Clause 4 of the Policy.

5.3.1.9. For each category of transactions identified as per the Clause 5.2 of this policy, the Company has a specific framework and guidelines explaining the arm's length criteria to be followed by the Company and/or the subsidiary, as may be applicable, while entering into transactions falling under contracts and agreements with related parties identified as per Clause 5.1 of this policy. The Company and/or the subsidiary, as may be applicable, while entering into RPTs will ensure adherence with the framework and guidelines and will maintain necessary documents for the same.

5.3.1.10. While seeking approval for a Related Party Transaction placed before the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee shall be provided with the information as required to be provided under the Act.

5.3.1.11. The Board may consider the details as required to be provided under the Act to the Audit Committee, in order to determine if the transaction is in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length or not.

5.3.1.12. The requirement for seeking Audit Committee approval for related party transactions shall not be applicable to transactions between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary/ies or between two wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, whose accounts are consolidated with the Company.

5.3.1.13. Transaction of following nature will not be subject to the omnibus approval of the Audit Committee:

- Transactions which are not at arm's length or not in the ordinary course of business

5.3.2.1. As per the provisions of Section 188 of the Act, all kinds of transactions specified under the said Section and which are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis, are placed before the Board for its approval.

5.3.2.2. In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with related parties are also placed before the Board for its approval:

- Transactions which may be in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which are as per the policy determined by the Board from time to time (i.e. value threshold and/or other parameters) require Board approval in addition to Audit Committee approval.
- Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the ordinary course of business and/or at arm's length basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for approval.
- Transactions which are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length basis, but which in Audit Committee's view requires Board approval.
- Transactions meeting the materiality thresholds laid down Clause 4 of the Policy and any subsequent Material Modification to a Material Related Party Transaction, which are intended to be placed before the shareholders for approval.

5.3.3 Approval of the Shareholders of the Company

5.3.3.1. All the transactions with related parties meeting the materiality thresholds, laid down in Clause 4 of the Policy, and any material modifications thereto as defined in Clause 3.2A will be placed before the shareholders for their approval.

5.3.3.2 The notice being sent to the shareholders seeking approval for any proposed related party transaction shall, include information as required under the Act.

5.3.3.3. Where a related party transaction has been approved by the Audit Committee and shareholders prior to April 1, 2022, there shall be no requirement to seek fresh approval from the shareholders.

5.3.3.4 A related party transaction which has been approved by the Audit Committee prior to April 1, 2022, which continues beyond such date and become material as per the revised materiality threshold as specified in Clause 4 above, then such related party transaction shall be placed before the shareholders in the first general meeting held after April 1, 2022.

5.3.3.5 The omnibus shareholders' approval of material related party transactions approved in an annual general meeting shall be valid up to the date of the next annual general meeting for a period not exceeding fifteen months. Further in case of omnibus approval for material related party transactions, obtained from shareholders in general meetings other than annual general meeting, the validity of such omnibus approvals shall not exceed one year.

5.3.3.6. All kinds of transactions specified under Section 188 of the Act which (a) are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length basis; and (b) exceed the thresholds laid down in Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 shall be placed before the shareholders for their approval.

5.3.3.7 For this purpose, no related party shall vote to approve the relevant resolution irrespective of whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

5.3.3.8 Pursuant to Section 188(1) of the Act the requirement for seeking shareholders' approval shall not be applicable, inter alia, to:

- ✓ Transactions entered between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- ✓ Transactions between two wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- ✓ Above prior approval of the Shareholders shall not be required in cases where the subsidiary is a listed entity.
- ✓ Also, requirements for shareholders' approval shall not apply in respect of a resolution plan approved under section 31 of the Insolvency Code, subject to the event being disclosed to the e exchanges within one day of the resolution plan being approved.

6. TRANSACTIONS FOR WHICH SEPARATE APPROVAL FOR RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION IS NOT REQUIRED

The transactions or arrangements which are specifically dealt under the separate provisions of the Law and executed under the separate approvals/procedures from relevant competent authority or Board Committee shall be deemed to be approved under this Policy and are not required to be separately approved under this Policy.
